

Please do not overturn the more stringent New Jersey Do Not Call law. I am grateful for the leadership that New Jersey has taken on this issue, restoring the quiet and sanctity of my home and family time free of the constant barrage of unwanted sales calls. Nobody would want an opportunity for that annoying practice to restart. Thank you for your consideration.